

Site Requirements Guide

The Site Requirements Guide has been replaced by the Hardware Universe (HWU) application as the authoritative source for site requirements information.

If you previously used the Site Requirements Guide, you can find the same information and more in the Hardware Universe.

Click Hardware Universe to access the application.

Note: Access to the Hardware Universe is provided to NetApp employees, partners and customers with full Support Site access. Contact the HWU Support DL if you have trouble accessing the HWU.
